Artisan Partners International Value Team Wins Three U.S. Lipper Fund Awards for Second Straight Year

Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Artisan Partners is pleased to announce that the Artisan International Value Fund received three 2024 Lipper Fund Awards. The Fund was named best fund in Lipper's International Large-Cap Value Funds category over the three-, five- and ten-year time periods.

This is the second year in a row that the Artisan International Value Team has swept the Lipper Fund Awards in the International Large-Cap Value category. The Fund is now one of just two funds in the category to earn the ten-year accolade multiple times since 2013.

"We are honored and humbled to receive these Lipper Awards," said David Samra, Lead Portfolio Manager of the Artisan International Value Fund. "These awards are a validation of our talented investment team, time-tested process, and commitment to generating wealth for our investors over the long term."

The Lipper Fund Awards recognize funds for their consistently strong risk-adjusted three-, five- and ten-year performance relative to peers. Based on Lipper's quantitative, proprietary methodology, the awards reflect a truly independent and uncompromised assessment of fund performance.
